

1/29/71
Texan Reveals
Army Spying
On Politicians

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 28 (AP)—A Houston postal carrier says he compiled information about several civilians, including state Sen. Barbara Jordan and state Rep. Curtis Graves, while he was an Army intelligence agent four years ago.

Walter B. Birdwell, 28, said Wednesday he did his spying in Austin and San Antonio during 1966 and 1967.

Birdwell said information which he and fellow agents compiled was forwarded to Ft. Holabird, Md. He said Army intelligence routinely exchanged information with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Houston police intelligence division.